

Sri Lanka International Journal of Buddhist Studies (SIJBS)
The Academic Journal of
Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy (SIBA)

Sri Lanka International Journal of Buddhist Studies (SIJBS) is the official by-annual academic Journal of Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy (SIBA). The journal, through the publication of scholarly articles and book reviews, aims at promoting study and research on all areas of Buddhist Studies irrespective of traditions, religions and periods. Considering the need of the day, the Journal will be a special forum where the scholars in Theravada Buddhism can publish their research findings for wider distribution. With these aim, the journal welcomes scholarly contributions pertaining to Canonical Literature, Buddhist Philosophy, Buddhism and Psychology, Psychotherapy, Buddhism and Counseling, Buddhism and Science, Buddhist Meditation, Buddhism and Economics, Buddhism and Sociology, Buddhist Meditation, Buddhism and Ecology, Ethics, Epistemology, Metaphysics, Language, Buddhist Culture, Texts, Art, Architecture, Archeology, History, Society, Religion, Education, Myths, Rituals, and articles on other teachings and disciplines related to Buddhist Studies.

Dr. Iromi Ariyaratne,
Editor in Chief,
SIJBS,
Sri Lanka International Buddhist Academy